

II POGGIO: how to reach

Cornia is a tiny village, 4 kms. from Cicagna, that you can see on the map. The whole area can be referred to as "Inland of Chiavari and Rapallo", two well-known sea-side resorts on the eastern Riviera ("Riviera di Levante").

Highway Genova-Livorno: EXIT CHIAVARI

When in Chiavari, follow indications to "Fontanabuona-Piacenza", and take the road from Chiavari to Cicagna (check on the map: Carasco, S.Colombano) ...

...here are some increasingly zoomed maps to help you find Il Poggio

Past Cicagna, a few kms ahead - Gallinaria, on the map - watch carefully to the right, and find the sign CORNIA: take the winding road uphill ...

Be a careful driver and blow your horn! Cornia is approx. 3.5 km from the main road junction.
At first you will see the old group of stone-walled houses to the left, then the church belfry on top of the hill.

Follow its direction and the detailed map here attached, and you will soon reach Il Poggio and the food store just below the church.
