

HOW TO REACH GRANDIBEN

Arriving by train

Station: S.Lucia

(There are trolleys you can use to carry your luggage. Boat tickets sold on the waterfront- left )

see also our "arriving in venice" section boat number 1 (Direction LIDO- 50 minutes- Through Canal Grande)

boat number 41 (30 minutes - Through Canale della Giudecca)

visit the actv website for further details

Stop: ARSENALE (Second stop past S.Marco).

N:1 is the most traditional way to approach the old center and its treasures. It carries you along the Grand Canal...wonderful and slow (1 hour's time to reach the Arsenale stop: it is normally considered to be worth the time you spend on it).

N.41 is faster (35 minutes)- its way to Arsenale is through the Giudecca Canal.

Arriving by car

Not particularly advisable: you will never drive a car in Venice and it will cost you good money to park it.

Anyway, there are two parking lots, at the end of the bridge connecting Venice to the mainland: Garage S.Marco in Piazzale Roma, and Tronchetto ( this one is a bit less expensive,but farer).

Here are the references:

Arriving by plain

Airport: Marco Polo

There is a hydrofoil shuttle- RED LINE- straight from the airport to the Arsenale.

www.alilaguna.com

It starts at the 10th and 40th minute, every hour. ( approx.1 hour's time to the Arsenale).

Please note: you should consider reaching the apartment 2 hours later then the time of your landing, considering the baggage claim and so on...

From the "ARSENALE" boat stop to the apartment ( Castello 4003)

Reaching Grandiben from the boat stop is an easy and short way ( 5 minutes): this favourable condition shouldn't be overlooked, as many other accomodations are 10 to 20 minutes off the nearest boat stop

Here is our map to assist you reach Grandiben...

From the boat stop, you go straight ahead crossing the Riva degli Schiavoni. Take the narrow Calle (street) dei Forni, then go past two intersections on the right. Take the first intersection to the left and reach the canal embankment, a few steps ahead. Follow the embankment as far as the first bridge. Cross it: you are just in front of the Palazzo Grandiben ( number 4003). Bell: Carli-Martinotti.

The door to our apartment is the first one on the left side of the hall-
